

Put the address in plain block letters in the postal boxes, and your return address in the space provided. Use numbers, but not dots, or pencil. Write plainly. Very small writing is not suitable.

Mr. Charles E. Loops, Jr.
907 Chatham Ave.
Lynchburg, Virginia
U.S.A.

Mr. Frank W. Loops, 666 2527
(Sender's name)

432 S. 17th Street, G.P.
(Sender's address)

P.O. 520, Westmore, N.C.

August 21, 1943
(Date)

Hello Frank,

Been meaning to get around to writing you all, but due to the heat, my nose picking up to snuff, and mainly my not being able to think of any disparaging remarks about the State of Georgia, I just haven't gotten around to it! - But in the meantime, with Brother Franking and seeing so much of the State, am sure he has some choice tidbits to tell!

Well, how do you like living in a city again, with mail service right to your gate? - Pretty nice, eh? - Best thing you know you'll not be satisfied with going to the back yard - when... I forget, that's part of our life! You should see some of our super clerical jobs - that's why was a fellow -

Georgia that Mr. Frank saw live with Melba & Janet now that the big has had to be away so much. And I know living in Virginia is so much better than Georgia for her! - Am glad too, that Janet is getting the chance to grow up in a good state! - Say, Melba - don't worry about all these head luck stories Brother has to tell about his traveling, and not eating on account of schedules & stuff. - From all I've been able to gather it's a blessing he can be away from the table for awhile. - Especially with clothing material getting more scarce all the time.

Frank, I don't mean half of these things I've said, except about Georgia. - I'm awfully glad Brother has gotten his break at last. He's on the road & hot now. - one of these days he'll light and you will be so much better off! - Personally, I'm better off when his traveling goes at some at night when he has nothing to do - for winter see pretty often!

Well, Frank!

Bye for now & Love,
Frank

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT PERMIT NO. 11